Houston Hot Sauce Festival Salsa Contest Winners!

Earlier today down at the HOUSTON HOT SAUCE FESTIVAL, a handful of chilehead judges tasted dozens of salsas in a Texas-style, shoot-'em-up salsa contest. This competition was held not only to give a few companies bragging rights, but also to raise both awareness and money for the Snowdrop Foundation, a worthy organization dedicated to assisting patients and families at Texas Children's Cancer Center. ??Al "Buddah" Goldenberg of I Love It Spicy! and Carol Borge of the Houston Hot Sauce Festival had put this fiery foods bout together. Just a short while ago, Al had given me the results to post. ??Salsas were judged in two categories: Best Fruit-Based Salsa and Best All-Purpose Salsa. The salsa has been eaten, the smoke has settled and the points have tabulated. Here are the results:

Best Fruit-Based Salsa . . .

1. Chuck Evans' MONTEZUMA BRAND Smokey Chipotle® Raspberry Lime Salsa]

2. Gunther's Gourmet- Spicy Ginger Pineapple Salsa

3. Red's- Mango Habanero Salsa

Best All-Purpose Salsa . . .

1. Red's - Hot Salsa

2. High Octane Sauce Company - Tire-Smoking Medium Salsa

3. Silver Leaf International- Ghost Pepper Salsa

Congratulations to the winners!
